CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

INFORMATION REPORT

This Document contains information affecting the National Defense of the United States, within the meaning of Title 18, Sections 793 and 794, of the U.S. Code, as amended. Its transmission or revelation of its contents to or receipt by an unauthorized person is prohibited by law. The reproduction of this form is prohibited.

ACE ACQUIRED 1. Generals Stolarek and Polturzycki 2. Volunteers for Korea NO. OF PAGES 1 REQUIREMENT NO. RD REFERENCES 25X This is UNEVALUATED Information THE SOURCE EVALUATIONS IN THIS REPORT ARE DEFINITIVE. THE APPRAISAL OF COMENT IS TENTATIVE. THE APPRAISAL OF COMENT IS TENTATIVE. (FOR KEY SEE REVENSE) 25X1 1. An Advanced Artillery Officers School (Wyzsza Szkola Artylerii) is located at Torum and is under the command of a Soviet officer who now has a Polish name, General (fau) Stolarek. The latter is a protage of General Wladyslaw Korcsyc, the head of the Polish General Staff and the son of Michail Fomich Koric who during Carnist times was a guard at the Cytadela prison in Warsaw, where Poles were imprisoned and executed. 2. General Bronislaw Polturzycki, recently appointed deputy of the General Flanning Director, is the son of Archip Leontiev Polturickoy, a copperantith in Revel (Tallin), Estonia, prior to the revolution. Polturzycki, who was former commander of the Bydgossos Military District, came to Poland for the first time in 1945 with the Soviet Army; he were a Polish uniform at that time but spoke very poor Polish, the history of most generals serving in the Polish Army today is similar to that described above. 3. In late September 1952, the Polish Ministry of National Defense issued scoret orders for the purpose of obtaining volunteers were for assignment to Korea. Volunteers were sought for among artillery and amored troop officers. One of the conditions was that the officers should speak fluent Russian. 1 twas said that the officers should speak fluent Russian. 1 twas said that the volunteers were to be sent to Korea to receive vinteer training on the battlefront; 1 twas said that the volunteers were to be sent to Korea to receive vinteer training on the battlefront; 2 today is similar to that described sources were to be sent to Korea to receive vinteer training on the battlefront; 1 twas said that the volunteers were to be sent to Korea to receive vinteer training on the batt			SECURITY INFORMATION
257 ACE ACQUIRED This is UNEVALUATED Information THE SOURCE EVALUATIONS IN THIS REPORT ARE DEFINITIVE. THE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. (FOR REY SEE REVERS) 1. An Advanced Artillery Officers' School (Wyssea Szkola Artylerii) is located at Torum and is under the command of a Soviet officer who now has a Polish name, General (frue) Stolarek, The latter is a protege of General Wildeylauk Korceyor, the head of the Polish General Staff and the son of Michajl Fomioh Korle who during Oseriet times was a guard at the Cytadela prison in Warsaw, where Poles were imprisoned and executed. 2. General Bronislaw Poltursycki, recently appointed deputy of the General Planning Director, I is the son of Archip Leontiev Poltursycky, who was former commander of the Pydgosson Military Polturion. Poltursycki, who was former commander of the Pydgosson Military Polturion. Poltursycki, who was former commander of the Pydgosson Military Polturion. Poltursycki, who was former commander of the Pydgosson Military Polturion on the propose of obtaining volunteer officers for easignment to Korea. The Pydgosson Military Polturion on the poltursycki was exerted orders for the purpose of obtaining volunteer officers for easignment to Korea orders for the purpose of obtaining volunteer officers for easignment to Korea orders for the purpose of obtaining volunteer officers for easignment to Korea orders for the purpose of obtaining volunteer officers for hospitals. One of the conditions was that the afficers should speak rinem Russian. 1. Late September 1952, the Polish Ministry of National Defense issued secret orders for the purpose of obtaining volunteer officers for easignment to Korea. Volunteers were sought for among artillery and armored trop officers. One of the conditions was that the afficers the depart of the Content Russian. 1. Late September 1952 the Polish Ministry of National Defense issued secret orders orders were not allowed to disclose their destination, and as an explanation to their ramilies they stated that they	DUNTRY	Poland	REPORT
NE OF INFO. ACE ACQUIRED This is UNEVALUATED Information This is UNEVALUATED Information This is UNEVALUATED Information The source evaluations in this mercut are definitive. The APPRAISAL or content is tentative. The APPRAISAL or content is tentative. The APPRAISAL or content is tentative. Torun and is under the command of a Soviet officer who now had a Polish name, General (frue) Stolarek. The latter is a protage of General Madyelaw Korcaye, the head of the Polish General Staff and the son of Michail Fomich Korie who during Osarist times was a guard at the Cytadela prison in Warsaw, where Poles were imprisoned and executed. 2. General Bronislaw Poltursychi, recently appointed deputy of the General Flanning Director, is the son of Archip Leontiev Polturickoy, a copperanth in Revel (Tallin), Ecteora Military District, came to Poland for the first time in 1945 with the Soviet Army he were a Polish uniform at that time but spoke very poor Polish. The history of most generals serving in the Polish Army to day is similar to that described above. 3. In late September 1952, the Folish Ministry of National Defense issued secret orders for the purpose of obtaining volunteer were to be sent to Korea. Volunteers were sought for among artillery and armored troop officers. One of the conditions was that the officers should speak fluent Russian. It was said that the volunteers were to be sent to Korea to receive volunteers were sent to Korea in April 1952 for summer training. Officers sent to Korea were not allowed to disclose their destination, and as an explanation to their families they stated that they were going to attend a course. Ozech officers were also enlisted for the same training. 1			Polturzycki DATE DIS	TR. 5 May 195	3
This is UNEVALUATED Information THE SOURCE EVALUATIONS IN THIS REPORT ARE DEFINITIVE. THE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. 25X1 1. An Advanced Artillery Officers' School (Wyzsza Szkola Artylerii) is located at Torum and is under the command of a Soviet officer who now has a Polish name, General (fanu) Stolarek. The latter is a protage of General Wiadyslaw Korczyte, the head of the Polish General Staff and the son of Michael Fondish Koric who during Carriet times was a guard at the Cytadela prison in Warsaw, where Poles were imprisoned and executed. 2. General Bronislaw Poltursycki, recently appointed deputy of the General Flanning Director, is the son of Archip Leontiev Polturickov, a copperant in Revel (Tallin), Estenda, prior to the revolution. Poltursycki, who was former commander of the Bydgessos Military District, came to Poland for the first time in 1945 with the Soviet Army: he were a Polish unform at that time but spoke very poor Polish. 25 the history of most generals serving in the Polish Army today is similar to that described above. 3. In late September 1952, the Polish Ministry of National Defense issued secret orders for the purpose of obtaining volunteer officers for assignment to Korea. Volunteers were sought for among artillery and armored troop officers. One of the conditions was that the officers should speak fluent Russian. 1. It was said that the volunteers were to be sent to Korea to receive Winter training on the battlefront; volunteers were sent to Korea in April 1952 for summer training. Officers ent to Korea were not allowed to disclose their destination, and as an explanation to their families they stated that they were going to attend a course. Csech officers were also enlisted for the same training. 1. Comment. may be referring to the State Economic Planning Commission. It was announced in the Polish press on 27 January 1953 that Poltursycki was appointed deputy chairmen of this commission.	د ه	volunceers for norea	NO. OF	PAGES 1
This is UNEVALUATED Information The Source evaluations in this report are definitive. The APPAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. TOTUM and is under the command of a Soviet officer who now has a Polish name, General (fnu) Stolarek. The latter is a protage of General Wladyslaw Korcsyo, the head of the Polish General Staff and the son of Michail Fonich Koric who during Ceartist times was a guard at the Cytadela prison in Warsaw, where Poles were imprisoned and executed. 2. General Bromislaw Poltursychi, recently appointed deputy of the General Planning Director, I is the son of Archip Leontiev Polturickoy, a copperantih in Revel (Tallin), Estonia, prior to the revolution. Poltursycki, who was former commander of the Bydgessor Military District, came to Poland for the first time in 1945 with the Soviet Army; he wore a Polish uniform at that time but spoke very poor Polish. The history of most generals serving in the Polish Army today is similar to that described above. 3. In late September 1952, the Polish Ministry of National Defense issued secret orders for the purpose of obtaining volunteer officers for assignment to Korea. Volunteers were sought for mamon artillery and armored troop officers. One of the conditions was that the officers should speak fluent Russian. 1 twes said that the volunteers were to be sent to Korea to receive a proper families they stated that they were going to attend a course. Cach officers were also enlisted for the same training. 1 Comment. 1 may be referring to the State Economic Planning Comment. 25 YEAR SECRET/CONTROL - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY	ATE OF INFO.		REQUIREM	ENT NO. RD
1. An Advanced Artillery Officers School (Wyzsza Szkola Artylerii) is located at Torun and is under the command of a Soviet officer who now has a Polish name, General (fau) Stolarek. The latter is a protege of General Wiladyslaw Korcsyc, the head of the Polish General Staff and the son of Michajl Fomich Koric who during Cazriet times was a guard at the Cytadela prison in Warsaw, where Poles were imprisoned and exacuted. 2. General Bronislaw Polturzycki, recently appointed deputy of the General Planning Director, is the son of Archip Leontiev Polturzycki, who was former commander of the Bydgoszos Military District, came to Poland for the first time in 1945 with the Soviet Army; he were a Polish uniform at that time but spoke very poor Polish. The history of most generals serving in the Polish Army today is similar to that described above. 3. In late September 1952, the Polish Ministry of National Defense issued secret orders for the purpose of obtaining volunteer officers for assignment to Korea. Volunteers were sought for among artillery and armored troop officers. One of the conditions was that the officers should speak fluent Russian. It was said that the volunteers were to be sent to Korea to receive winter training on the battlefront; or some training. Officers sent to Korea were not allowed to disclose their destination, and as an explanation to their families they stated that they were going to attend a course. Czech officers were also enlisted for the same training. 1	ACE ACQUIRED		REFERENCI	ES	25X
1. An Advanced Artillery Officers' School (Wyssza Szkola Artylerii) is located at Torun and is under the command of a Soviet officer who now has a Polish name, General (fau) Stolarek. The latter is a protege of General Madyslaw Korczyo, the head of the Polish General Staff and the son of Michajl Fomich Koric who during Czariet times was a guard at the Cytadela prison in Warsaw, where Poles were imprisoned and executed. 2. General Bronislaw Poltursycki, recently appointed deputy of the General Planning Directory, is the son of Archip Leontiev Polturickoy, a copperamith in Revel (Tallin), Estonia, prior to the revolution. Poltursycki, who was former commander of the Bydgosson Military District, came to Poland for the first time in 1945 with the Soviet Army; he wore a Polish uniform at that time but spoke very poor Polish. the history of most generals serving in the Polish Army today is similar to that described above. 3. In late September 1952, the Polish Ministry of National Defense issued secret orders for the purpose of obtaining volunteer officers for assignment to Korea. Volunteers were sought for among artillery and armored troop officers. One of the conditions was that the officers were to be sent to Korea to receive winter training on the battlefront; 1 thus said that the volunteers were to be sent to Korea to receive winter training on the battlefront; 1 thus said that the volunteers were to be sent to Korea to receive winter training on the battlefront; 25 volunteers were sent to Korea in April 1952 for summer training. Officers sent to Korea were not allowed to disclose their destination, and as an explanation to their families they stated that they were going to attend a course. Czech officers were also enlisted for the same training. 1. Comment. may be referring to the State Economic Planning Commission. It was announced in the Polish press on 27 January 1953 that Poltursycki was appointed deputy chairmen of this commission.			his is UNEVALUATED Informa	tion
1. An Advanced Artillery Officers School (Wyzsza Szkola Artylerii) is located at Torum and is under the command of a Soviet officer who now has a Polish name, General (fmu) Stolarek. The latter is a protage of General Wladyslaw Korcsyc, the head of the Polish General Staff and the son of Michajl Fomich Koric who during Czarist times was a guard at the Cytadela prison in Warsaw, where Poles were imprisoned and executed. 2. General Bronislaw Poltursycki, recently appointed deputy of the General Planning Director, is the son of Archip Leontiev Poltursycki, who was former commander of the Bydgoszcz Military District, came to Poltursycki, who was former commander of the Bydgoszcz Military District, came to Poltursycki, who was former commander of the Bydgoszcz Military District, came to Poltursycki, who was former commander the Soviet Army; he were a Polish uniform at that time but spoke very poor Polish. the Soviet Army; he were a Polish Ministry of National Defense issued secret orders for the purpose of obtaining volunteer officers for assignment to Korea. Volunteers were sought for among artillery and armored troop officers. One of the conditions was that the officers should speak fluent Russian. It was said that the volunteers were to be sent to Korea to receive winter training on the battlefront; 25) volunteers were sent to Korea in April 1952 for summer training. Officers sent to Korea were not allowed to disclose their destination, and as an explanation to their families they stated that they were going to attend a course. Czech officers were also enlisted for the same training. 1. Comment. may be referring to the State Economic Planning Commission. It was announced in the Polish press on 27 January 1953 that Polturzycki was appointed deputy chairman of this commission.	1.		RAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE.		25X1
during Cmarist times was a guard at the Cytadela prison in Warsaw, where Poles were imprisoned and executed. 2. General Bronislaw Polturzycki, recently appointed deputy of the General Planning Director, is the son of Archip Leontiev Polturickoy, a coppersmith in Revel (Tallin), Estonia, prior to the revolution. Polturzycki, who was former commander of the Bydgoszcz Military District, came to Poland for the first time in 1945 with the Soviet Army; he were a Polish uniform at that time but spoke very poor Polish the history of most generals serving in the Polish Army today is similar to that described above. 3. In late September 1952, the Polish Ministry of National Defense issued secret orders for the purpose of obtaining volunteer officers for assignment to Korea. Volunteers were sought for among artillery and armored troop officers. One of the conditions was that the officers should speak fluent Russian. it was said that the volunteers were to be sent to Korea to receive winter training on the battlefront; volunteers were sent to Korea in April 1952 for summer training. Officers sent to Korea were not allowed to disclose their destination, and as an explanation to their families they stated that they were going to attend a course. Czech officers were also enlisted for the same training. 1. Comment. may be referring to the State Economic Planning Commission. It was announced in the Polish press on 27 January 1953 that Polturzycki was appointed deputy chairmen of this commission.
Director, 1 is the son of Archip Lecatiev Polturickoy, a coppersmith in Revel (Tallin), Estonia, prior to the revolution. Polturzycki, who was former commander of the Bydgoszcz Military District, came to Poland for the first time in 1945 with the Soviet Army; he were a Polish uniform at that time but spoke very poor Polish. the history of most generals serving in the Polish Army today is similar to that described above. 3. In late September 1952, the Polish Ministry of National Defense issued secret orders for the purpose of obtaining volunteer officers for assignment to Korea. Volunteers were sought for among artillery and armored troop officers. One of the conditions was that the officers should speak fluent Russian. The volunteers were sent to Korea in April 1952 for summer training. Officers sent to Korea were not allowed to disclose their destination, and as an explanation to their families they stated that they were going to attend a course. Czech officers were also enlisted for the same training. 1	l. An . Tor Gen	Advanced Artillery Offic un and is under the com- eral (fnu) Stolarek, T	mand of a Soviet officer who he latter is a protege of Ge	now has a Polish name eneral Wladyslaw Korczy	rc.
J. In late September 1952, the Polish Ministry of National Defense issued secret orders for the purpose of obtaining volunteer officers for assignment to Korea. Volunteers were sought for among artillery and armored troop officers. One of the conditions was that the officers should speak fluent Russian. it was said that the volunteers were to be sent to Korea to receive winter training on the battlefront; a group of volunteers were sent to Korea in April 1952 for summer training. Officers sent to Korea were not allowed to disclose their destination, and as an explanation to their families they stated that they were going to attend a course. Czech officers were also enlisted for the same training. 1. Comment. may be referring to the State Economic Planning Commission. It was announced in the Polish press on 27 January 1953 that Polturzycki was appointed deputy chairman of this commission. 5 YEAR SECRET/CONTROL - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY	1. An Tor Gen the dur wer	Advanced Artillery Officen and is under the commercal (fnu) Stolarek. The head of the Polish Gening Czarist times was a primprisoned and executeral Bronislaw Polturzy.	mand of a Soviet officer who he latter is a protege of Ge eral Staff and the son of Mi guard at the Cytadela priso ed. cki, recently appointed depu	o now has a Polish name eneral Wladyslaw Korczy chajl Fomich Koric who on in Warsaw, where Pol aty of the General Plan	rc, c, es orders for the purpose of obtaining volunteer officers for assignment to Korea. Volunteers were sought for among artillery and armored troop officers. One of the conditions was that the officers should speak fluent Russian. it was said that the volunteers were to be sent to Korea to receive winter training on the battlefront; volunteers were sent to Korea in April 1952 for summer training. Officers sent to Korea were not allowed to disclose their destination, and as an explanation to their families they stated that they were going to attend a course. Czech officers were also enlisted for the same training. 1	1. An Tor Gen the dur wer 2. Gen Dir (Ta of the	Advanced Artillery Officen and is under the comparal (fnu) Stolarek. The head of the Polish General Bronislaw Polturzy exter, I is the son of Allin), Estonia, prior to the Bydgoszcz Military I Soviet Army; he wore a the I	mand of a Soviet officer who he latter is a protege of Ge eral Staff and the son of Mi guard at the Cytadela priso ed. eki, recently appointed depu richip Leontiev Polturickoy, to the revolution. Polturayon District, came to Poland for Polish uniform at that time mistory of most generals ser	o now has a Polish name eneral Wladyslaw Korczy chajl Fomich Koric who in Warsaw, where Polity of the General Plan a coppersmith in Revel ki, who was former come the first time in 194 but spoke very poor F	es ming mander 5 with it was said that the volunteers were to be sent to Korea to receive winter training on the battlefront; a group of volunteers were sent to Korea in April 1952 for summer training. Officers sent to Korea were not allowed to disclose their destination, and as an explanation to their families they stated that they were going to attend a course. Czech officers were also enlisted for the same training. 1	1. An Tor Gen the dur wer 2. Gen Dir (Ta of the	Advanced Artillery Officen and is under the comparal (fnu) Stolarek. The head of the Polish General Bronislaw Polturzy ester, I is the son of Advanced In Polydoszcz Military I Soviet Army; he wore a the lay is similar to that design and is similar to the simila	mand of a Soviet officer who he latter is a protege of Ge eral Staff and the son of Mi guard at the Cytadela priso ed. cki, recently appointed depu rchip Lecntiev Polturickoy, to the revolution. Polturzyco District, came to Poland for Polish uniform at that time history of most generals ser escribed above.	o now has a Polish name eneral Wladyslaw Korczy chajl Fomich Koric who on in Warsaw, where Polity of the General Plan a coppersmith in Revel ki, who was former control the first time in 194 but spoke very poor F wing in the Polish Arm	ming mander 5 with colish-25 to Korea were not allowed to disclose their destination, and as an explanation to their families they stated that they were going to attend a course. Czech officers were also enlisted for the same training. 1. Comment. may be referring to the State Economic Planning Commission. It was announced in the Polish press on 27 January 1953 that Polturzycki was appointed deputy chairman of this commission. SECRET/CONTROL = U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY	1. An Tor Gen the dur wer 2. Gen Dir (Ta of the tod 3. In ord	Advanced Artillery Officers and is under the commercal (fnu) Stolarek. The head of the Polish General Exercises and execute exal Bronislaw Polturzy exter, is the son of Allin), Estonia, prior to the Bydgoszcz Military is Soviet Army; he were a the lay is similar to that delate September 1952, the ers for the purpose of conteers were sought for	mand of a Soviet officer who he latter is a protege of Ge eral Staff and the son of Mi guard at the Cytadela priso ed. cki, recently appointed depu rchip Leontiev Polturickoy, the revolution. Polturayo District, came to Poland for Polish uniform at that time history of most generals ser escribed above. Polish Ministry of Nationa bataining volunteer officers among artillery and armored	o now has a Polish name eneral Wladyslaw Korczy chajl Fomich Koric who in Warsaw, where Polity of the General Plan a copperamith in Revel ki, who was former come the first time in 194 but spoke very poor Fiving in the Polish Arm al Defense issued secretary for assignment to Koric troop officers. One	ming mander 5 with colish.25
1. Comment. may be referring to the State Economic Planning 25% Commission. It was announced in the Polish press on 27 January 1953 that Polturzycki was appointed deputy chairman of this commission. 5 YEAR SECRET/CONTROL = U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY	1. An Tor Gen the dur wer 2. Gen Dir (Ta of the tod 7. In ord vol the win	Advanced Artillery Officen and is under the commercial (fnu) Stolarek. The head of the Polish General Bronislaw Polturzy ector, I is the son of Allin), Estonia, prior to the Bydgoszcz Military I Soviet Army; he wore a the late September 1952, the ers for the purpose of conditions was that the it was said that the ter training on the batter that it was said that the ter training on the batter that it was said that the ter training on the batter that it was said that the ter training on the batter training traini	mand of a Soviet officer who he latter is a protege of Ge eral Staff and the son of Mi guard at the Cytadela priso ed. cki, recently appointed deput rehip Lecntiev Polturickoy, the revolution. Polturaye District, came to Poland for Polish uniform at that time history of most generals ser escribed above. Polish Ministry of Nationa betaining volunteer officers among artillery and armored a officers should speak flue t the volunteers were to be tlefront;	o now has a Polish name eneral Wladyslaw Korczy chajl Fomich Koric who in Warsaw, where Polity of the General Plan a coppersmith in Revel ki, who was former come the first time in 194 but spoke very poor Poving in the Polish Armall Defense issued secret for assignment to Korl troop officers. One introposian. Sent to Korea to receive a group of	mander 5 with Polish 25
Commission. It was announced in the Polish press on 27 January 1953 that Polturzycki was appointed deputy chairman of this commission. 5 YEAR SECRET/CONTROL - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY	1. An Tor Gen the dur wer 2. Gen Dir (Ta of the tod 3. In ord vol the win vol to to	Advanced Artillery Officen and is under the commercial (fnu) Stolarek. The head of the Polish General Bronislaw Polturzy, ector, I is the son of Allin), Estonia, prior to the Bydgoszcz Military I Soviet Army; he wore a the late September 1952, the late September 1952 that the late ser that the late was said that the later training on the batter training on the batter training on the batter training that they stated their families they stated their families they stated the later training that they stated their families they stated the later training they stated their families they stated the later training they stated their families they stated the later training they stated the later training they stated their families they stated the later training they stated the later training they stated they s	mand of a Soviet officer who he latter is a protege of Ge eral Staff and the son of Mi guard at the Cytadela priso ed. cki, recently appointed depu rchip Leontiev Polturickoy, the revolution. Polturzyc District, came to Poland for Polish uniform at that time history of most generals ser escribed above. Polish Ministry of Nationa botaining volunteer officers among artillery and armored a officers should speak flue the the volunteers were to be blefront; rea in April 1952 for summer to disclose their destinatio ted that they were going to	o now has a Polish name eneral Wladyslaw Korczy chajl Fomich Koric when in Warsaw, where Polish a coppersmith in Revelocki, who was former come the first time in 194 but spoke very poor Poving in the Polish Arm troop officers. One of training. Officers some a group of training. Officers some and as an explanati	ming mander 5 with colish-25 trea. of ve eent on
O I LATE	1. An Tor Gen the dur wer 2. Gen Dir (Ta of the tod yol the win vol to off	Advanced Artillery Officen and is under the commercal (fnu) Stolarek. The head of the Polish General Bronislaw Polturzy, ector, l is the son of American Bronislaw Polturzy, ector, l is the son of American Bronislaw Polturzy, ector, l is the son of American Bronislaw Polturzy, ector, l is the son of American prior to the Bydgoszcz Military I Soviet Army; he wore a the late September 1952, the late series were sought for conditions was that the later training on the batter training of the bat	mand of a Soviet officer who he latter is a protege of Ge eral Staff and the son of Mi guard at the Cytadela priso ed. cki, recently appointed depu rchip Lecntiev Polturickoy, to the revolution. Poltursyc District, came to Poland for Polish uniform at that time history of most generals ser escribed above. e Polish Ministry of Nationa bataining volunteer officers among artillery and armored a officers should speak flue the volunteers were to be thefront; rea in April 1952 for summer to disclose their destinatio ted that they were going to it for the same training.	now has a Polish name eneral Wladyslaw Korczy chajl Fomich Koric who in in Warsaw, where Polity of the General Plan a coppersmith in Revel the first time in 194 but spoke very poor F wing in the Polish Arm I Defense issued secret for assignment to Korl troop officers. One int Russian sent to Korea to recei a group of training. Officers son, and as an explanatiattend a course. Czec	ming mander 5 with colish. 25 of ve 25)
	1. An Tor Gen the dur wer 2. Gen Dir (Ta of the tod yol the win vol to off	Advanced Artillery Officers and is under the commercal (fnu) Stolarek. The head of the Polish General Series times was a series imprisoned and executeral Bronislaw Polturzy ector, is the son of Allin), Estonia, prior to the Bydgoszcz Military is Soviet Army; he wore a the lay is similar to that delate September 1952, the ers for the purpose of contains were sought for conditions was that the it was said that the training on the batter training on the batt	mand of a Soviet officer who he latter is a protege of Ge eral Staff and the son of Mi guard at the Cytadela priso ed. cki, recently appointed depu rchip Lecntiev Polturickoy, the revolution. Polturayo District, came to Poland for Polish uniform at that time history of most generals ser escribed above. Polish Ministry of Nationa bataining volunteer officers among artillery and armored a officers should speak flue t the volunteers were to be tlefront; rea in April 1952 for summer to disclose their destinatio ted that they were going to if for the same training. may be referring to the mounced in the Polish press	o now has a Polish name eneral Wladyslaw Korczy chajl Fomich Koric who in Warsaw, where Polity of the General Plan a coppersmith in Revel the first time in 194 but spoke very poor F wing in the Polish Arm troop officers. One ont Russian. sent to Korea to receive a group of training. Officers son, and as an explanatiattend a course. Czec de State Economic Plann on 27 January 1953 tha	ming mander 5 with colish. 25 tea. of ve 25)